OVERVIEW

Bicycling is no more just an occasional ride to stay fit. Cycling tours in India serve as an efficient and fun way to explore different regions of the country. So, if you are a cycling enthusiast and want to make the most of it from the saddle of your cycle, congrats! You are at the right place.

In order to make this Odyssey more challenging and amusing, we tried to add exotic and scenic routes, from riding on flyovers to small lanes, Smooth & easy routes to gravel & Challenging roads, exploring plains to mountains regions, and much more. Get ready to witness the unique combination of heritage, metro life, and luxury in a single cycling expedition. This cycling expedition area is so diverse that there is something for everyone.

We will start this journey from the India Gate, Delhi, the capital city of India, then transverse through the pink city of India, Jaipur. Pedaling across the astonishing architectural buildings and the royalty of Rajasthan, then we will head towards Bundi, which is famous for its monuments and forts. After exploring Bundi, Our next destination will be Udaipur also known as the "City of Lakes", which is famous for its ancient architectural places. After exploring the royalty of Rajasthan, we will move towards Godhra and then to Navsari which lies in Gujarat. Then, we will head towards one of the most popular tourist states of India, Maharashtra. Firstly, we will explore Vasai-Virar city. After exploring Vasai-Virar, we will ride towards the final destination of this expedition, Mumbai, which is also the capital city of Maharashtra.
